DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-5 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is vague and indefinite what structure is being claimed by the "sound reflecting element". The dependent claims specify what is formed by the element (spheroid) but do not further clarify what the specific STRUCTURE encompasses the claimed "sound reflecting element".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Afendykiw et al ('493).

The patent to Afendykiw et al discloses a source localization method that collects RF data with delay information, stores the delay information and acquires the relative position of the source from the delay information (see col. 2, lines 14-30, and Figures 1 and 3).

Art Unit: 3662

The difference between claim 6 and Afendykiw et al is the claim specifies an acoustic system whereas Afendykiw et al discloses a RF system. However, in as much as acoustic and RF systems both include localization methods it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have utilized Afendykiw et al in an acoustic system.

Dependent claims 7-10 are further provided by Afendykiw et al.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-10 and 16-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
